

PRESS RELEASE

THE PATH TO FAIR BALANCE OF PARTICIPATION

Invisible Young People Count!

Erasmus+ Programme Support for policy reform, Stakeholder dialogue and policy promotion: Dialogue between young people and policy makers August 2015 September 2016 Finland

The ASDA - Aar Social Development Association ry is promoting the Dialogue between young people and policy makers project in partnership with local youth organizations from Finland as way to development participatory seminars, based on the structured dialogue to give not only visibility to this issue, at local, regional, national and European, but also allow young people with few opportunities to assume a central role in the development of strategies and measures for its own inclusion and full integration in society. This project examines participation among youth immigrants in Finland, and their difficulties in accessing to the structured dialogue with decision makers in Finland. Its supported by CIMO - Centre for International Mobility and European Commission under Erasmus plus Programme.

This project is completely linked to the process of Structured Dialogue European priorities and the level of participation of young people with fewer opportunities in the framework of the European year for development: our world, our dignity, our future-2015. An opportunity to raise the awareness of European citizens to the EU's development policies and for its role as one of the main world agents in the fight against poverty - Decision No. 472/2014/EU of the EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT and of the Council of April 16, 2014.

This project will be divided in format of regional seminars for consultations and national meeting and will be used methods of non-formal education and non-formal learning involving young people from based in Finland as way to attend the activities of "The path to fair balance of participation: Invisible Young People Count!", which will be held in Finnish cities between August 2015 and September 2016.

Do not hesitate to contact Project coordinator Mr. Yasín Gass by phone: +358468935954 or by e-mail: gass.yas@gmail.com for any additional information concerning the project.